

USING LAY AND LIE

The verb lay means “to put or place something.” The verb lie has eight or nine meanings, all having in common the idea of “being in a horizontal position, or to remain , or to be situated.”

Lie is always an intransitive verb. That is, it never has an object. Lay is a transitive verb. It almost always has an object. The principal parts of these verbs are as follows:

PRESENT	PAST	PAST PARTICIPLE
lay	laid	laid
lie	lay	lain
